

GIRLS! GIRLS! GIRLS! DROVE SAD CANDIDATE TO STATE OF FRENZY

Someone Put Fake Ad. in Paper to Get the Goat
of J. Kelleher.

Jeremiah Kelleher, who ran for the Assembly in the Twenty-fourth District and was badly beaten, was enjoying a sweet dream at 7 o'clock this morning when there was persistent knocking on the door of his apartment on the fourth floor at No. 164 East One Hundred and

Pick Out the Dyspeptic

You Can Tell Them Anywhere and Especially if You See One Eat.

A Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet Will Digest Any Meal.

One of the saddest sights at a revival is the dinner table to see a man or a woman unable to eat because of dyspepsia.

It is really a crime to continue this martyrdom when all one has to do is to eat a little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

Just carry a tablet in your purse and after each meal eat it as you would a peppermint. It will digest the meal and surely convince you that food will not hurt you.

One grain of the ingredients which compose a Stuart's Tablet will digest 5,000 grains of fish, meat, coffee, tea, cream, meats, vegetables and pastries.

The whole idea of this great natural digester is to aid nature to do her work without exhaustion, and it certainly accomplishes this result.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are our best known remedy for all stomach and dyspepsia troubles. It is positively wonderful to see the way one of these little tablets will digest a meal and no one can realize it until one has used these tablets.

Many thousands of people use these tablets occasionally just to keep their digestion always perfect. If you stay up late or overeat, then take a tablet before bed-time; there will be no horrible dreams or bad mouth taste. Go to your drugstore now and buy a 50c box and go armed against any kind of stomach trouble.

Second street. Awakened from a vision in which he saw himself elected unanimously, Mr. Kelleher went to the door and found there four young women.

"What is it?" asked the sleepy would-be statesman.

"We came to see about that job," said the young women and just then two more young women rushed up the stairs and charged at the quartette already on hand.

"You must have got into the wrong place," said Kelleher.

"You are J. Kelleher, aren't you?" demanded one of the girls. "Then how do you explain this?"

She showed him bewildered Kelleher an advertisement in a morning newspaper. It read:

"Girls—Wanted 100 at once for clerical work. J. Kelleher, 164 East One Hundred and Second Street."

Kelleher said he didn't put the ad. in the paper. The girls didn't appear to believe him. He closed the door and dressed. When he appeared again the hall was jammed with girls and they were beginning to block the stairway down to the third floor.

Being more or less wise, Kelleher quietly went out a back door, made his way to the roof and escaped by way of an adjoining house. By 9 o'clock there were 200 girls besieging the flat house in which he makes his home with his mother, and more were coming.

The girls were from Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens and the Bronx. Many of them were stenographers. All claimed experience in clerical work. Unanimously they were mad at being hoaxed, but they weren't any madder than Kelleher, who hid out in a safe place a couple of blocks away and got reports of the disturbance at his home from trusted friends.

Neighbors and friends of Kelleher circulated among the girls, assuring them that Kelleher had not inserted the advertisement and was as much a victim of a practical joke as themselves.

But the girls were hard to convince and they wouldn't leave. Finally it became necessary to appeal to the police, and three patrolmen were sent around from the East One Hundred and Fourth street station.

Under the influence of the officers the collection of girls slowly dispersed. But a practical joke as themselves.

PAID $5.05 FOR HIS SEAT.

But He Might Have Saved $5 If He Hadden Been Impolite.

Reuben Phillipson, an ex-peddler of Metuchen, N. J., entered a fourth-floor Third Avenue elevated train at one hundred and sixty-sixth street today and set down an empty egg case on the foot of Mrs. Mary Carney of No. 219 East Two Hundred and Thirty-seventh street. He then crowded into the seat beside her, though there were other vacant seats in the car.

Mrs. Carney, an aged, pushed him into the aisle and gave him a bit of her mind as to his manners. Phillipson talked back until he was arrested by Policeman McMorris of the Morrisania station, who happened to be on the car.

Magistrate Dowd, in Morrisania Court, fined Phillipson $5 for disorderly conduct despite his excuse that he had to sit beside Mrs. Carney because it made him sick to ride backward.

Lover Elected, Shoots Himself.
(Special to The Evening World.)

PATHEBON, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Because his sweetheart's father ejected him from the house and prohibited his further attentions, Henry Mayer, twenty-one, of No. 61 Tenth avenue, today committed suicide by shooting himself in the heart as he was on his way to work.

LIFE'S STRUGGLE WITH ILLNESS

Mrs. Stewart Tells How She Suffered from 16 to 45 Years Old—How Finally Cured.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blessed with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting I cannot over-estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing since I was 42 years old. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADELIA STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

TWINS START A FIRE.

Children's Play Causes Damage to Four Buildings.

Abraham and Jacob Tunkin, the five-year-old twin sons of Mrs. Sarah Tunkin, who live on the top floor of the three-story frame flat at No. 184 Livonia avenue in the Brownsville section of Brooklyn, were left alone by their mother this morning while she went to a grocery nearby. The twins started a fire in a corner of the kitchen. They were watching it gleefully when their mother returned, grabbed them up and dashed out of the house yelling "fire."

The two other families got out and some one turned in an alarm. Battalion Chief McAuliffe sent in a second alarm because a high wind was sweeping the flames over the neighboring houses, all of them frame structures. The firemen had a lively half hour quenching the flames, but the fire burned out the top and second floors of Nos. 184 and 186 and the top floors of Nos. 182, 186 and 190.

S. Sanford & Son's Carpets and Rugs, since 1838, have been the "bread and butter" of American floor-coverings. From the Aroostook to the Rio Grande, and from the Columbia to the Oklawaha, they carpet the floors of thousands of homes. So there isn't a thing we had to say to make them better known. And there isn't a housekeeper within reaching distance of New York, wanting rugs or carpets, who needs to be admonished of the importance of getting some of the fine advantages of this occasion. Because:

The Vast Scope of Our Purchase Makes Certain a Wonderful Variety to Choose From
The Price Reductions Are Amazing on Goods of Such High Standard of Quality

Every rug and every yard of carpet is absolutely perfect, except for a few rugs among those in the Subway Store, which are mismatched, and sold as such. Owners of private houses and apartments, managers of hotels and boarding houses, as well as clubs, institutions and business buildings, are alike interested in the Sale. ## All Those OIL PAINTINGS (Our Importations for This Season) Which Have Been $65 to $1500 Are Now $48.75 to $1100 But for a Short Time Only

It is rather a peculiar proceeding to reduce prices on Oil Paintings which have been in America only a few weeks, at the very beginning of the holiday season.

But we are very proud of our collection which our experts selected personally in Europe, and which includes among others the work of a number of Salon exhibitors. So, to bring it to the attention of more art lovers than now know it, we make this unusual offer, which amounts to on the Paintings between the above mentioned price extremes.

Cold Wave! And Sharp Savings A-Plenty on Blankets & Comfortables

Our buyers spent weeks in quest of the new lots; and many Blanket mills, in order to sell to GIMBELS for the first time, made liberal concessions.

Then, too, the fates took a hand to your advantage. Some of our fine Blankets have become soiled from handling in the course of the past few weeks. But the savings outweigh these sentimental hurts:

White Wool Blankets, $6 pair Were $7.50. Best of wool woven through cotton; 72x82 in.; dainty pink and blue borders. Smooth-finish Wool Blankets, cotton basis; in white and gray; full bed size; $3.50, were $5.	All-Wool Plaid Blankets, $5 Pair Were $6.50. Woven especially for us. All the new block covers; full size. Wool-filled Silk Comfortables, $6 Were $6.50. Dainty hues of French sateen; plain borders; fine wool filling; full size.
White and Gray Blankets, $2.85 Pair Were $4. Smooth-finish, durable Blankets; for rugged service; fine for servants' room.	Winter-Weight Comfortables, $3.50 Were $4.50. Cozy, figured-looking sateen; fine filling.
Special Family Blankets, $5 Pair Were $6.50. Woven from the long staple wool; many extra sizes among them.	JUST AS THIS ANNOUNCEMENT was going to press, we placed among our fine BROCADED SATIN COMFORTABLES at $15, many $26 ones. They won't remain long in sight. Second Floor

There'll Be Little Hesitation About The Going of These Go-Carts At Such Low Prices

Inhospitable as it may seem, we are turning them out to make room for Christmas stocks.

Baby will bump the rough spots and hit the high spots in life soon enough—now is the time when you can really ease his going.

These are floor samples of the ALVIN FOLDING GO-CARTS. You can take them right with you in the car or train—an excellent solution of the carry-me-daddy problem.

$14 and $15 Styles At $8.50
$18 and $20 Styles At $12.50

Another Prize Sale Has Come to GIMBELS This Time from

JULIUS SMOLIN
The Milliner Who Is Renowned for Smart Trotteur & Chic Dress Hats

We were agreeably surprised when Mr. Smolin offered us his collection of Winter Hats at an almost unheard-of concession, for it was an unprecedented proposition. And he frankly admitted that he hopes that he shall never again do anything so radical. The cause for this disposal—which in our enthusiasm we nearly forgot to mention—is that he is moving his shop uptown and does not want to bother with any stock.

As these hats are fashioned after the Winter modes of Paris, many of them are trimmed with fashionable furs—some of the Dress Hats are trimmed with ostrich plumes and fantasies.

These Hats at $2.50, $3.75, $5 and $6.75
Are About 33% Per Cent Less Than Smolin Wholesale Prices

Of Surpassing Brilliance--The GIMBEL Collection of Fine CRYSTALS

Which We Now Have the Pleasure to Present

Beauty, character, wonderful diversity are the keywords of this gathering. Mere size is a side issue, though we are told that even in that attribute this GIMBEL Crystal collection excels. But that doesn't interest you, except as it makes for more moderate prices than the specialty shop along the Avenue can afford to charge for such exquisite wares as can be found only there—and here.

Look at the glittering spread, which only overnight has demanded—and received—more space than ever we granted it before. Consider that, if you are seeking wedding presents (and crystals are amazingly popular nowadays as wedding gifts) or Glassware for your own domicile, or if you are starting early on your Christmas shopping, you can choose here from—

TWENTY designs in English Rock Crystal Services.
EIGHTEEN designs in Gold Crystal Services.
TWELVE French, SIXTEEN Bohemian, FIVE Swedish, THIRTY-ONE American Table Services—all in "open stock" patterns, and including, for instance, Water Goblets from 75c to $150 a dozen!

You will find the various classes grouped on separate tables; and, besides, tables of English Cut Glass in Rock Crystal effects.

Vases, in every conceivable style and height. Liqueur Sets. Cut Glass Punch Bowls. Cut Glass Boxes, for Gloves, Handkerchiefs, etc. Table Decorations in new concepts, up to an exquisite design by Webb at $125. Candlesticks and Candelabra, in charming Colonial effects. Tantalus Sets and various decorative pieces. And Cut Glass from practically every maker of note in America.

It's almost bromide to mention the names of Webb, Corbet, Baccarat, Tschernisch, and the other masters of glass-making, as represented in this GIMBEL collection—their presence here is long since an accepted fact. To one who loves beautiful Crystals, a walk through the Salons is a delight—and a temptation, when one thinks of
